Monthly Luncheon The Preserve at Ironhorse

Forty-five Palm Beach Council members and guests convened at The Preserve at Ironhorse for a delightful luncheon and a presentation by guest speaker, Commander Keith Bushey, U.S.Navy.

Our luncheon and associated activity were ably led by council Executive VP Peter Petrelis, who announced that our council President was on his third day of jury duty in West Palm Beach and sent his regrets at having to miss this event. Peter thanked council members Jennie Monroe, Tammy Fernandez, Catherine Brister, and Bandi Gilley for their work in making this day a success.

Commander Bushey is Commanding Officer of the Navy Operational Support Center (NOSC), West Palm Beach. The center is the military duty station for over 250 Navy Reservists, with a full-time staff of around 12 uniform personnel. He was accompanied today by one of his senior enlisted leaders, Chief Petty Officer (ETC) Nicholas Niglio.

Commander Bushey was extremely complimentary of the Palm Beach Council's spirited and generous support to NOSC, West Palm Beach and other local sea service units. He provided an excellent overview of Navy Reserve personnel in action around the globe, and remarked that 41 personnel from his NOSC had volunteered and deployed overseas for duty in Afghanistan, Iraq, Kuwait, Bahrain, Djibouti and Cuba over the past 3 years.

Exec VP Peter provided a brief overview of Palm Beach Council events, recent past and near future, and encouraged everyone to join in council activities supporting the Sea Services (Navy, Marines, Coast Guard & Merchant Marine) and the six Sea Cadet, JROTC, and Young Marine youth groups that we sponsor.

He announced our next General Meeting and luncheon buffet at the Sailfish Club in Palm Beach on Dec 11th, at which meeting we will elect the council officers for service in 2019. The Nominating Committee's slate for 2019 is included at the end of this News Clip. If you wish to fill the soon-to-be vacant VP Legislative Affairs slot, please let Council President Steve Wiggins know (swiggins5341@gmail.com).
