Luncheon at Abacoa Golf Club with Focus on Palm Beach County Youth Groups

Over 30 enthusiastic Palm Beach Council members convened in a private dining room at the Abacoa Golf Club for February's luncheon.

We were treated to outstanding presentations by leaders of 5 of the youth groups the Palm Beach Council sponsors each year.

Well done to Jennie Monroe for organizing this first-ever event for us at Abacoa, and well done to VP Youth Programs Frank Verna for organizing and executing the youth group reports.

Frank Verna did his usual outstanding job in multiple roles. He is our VP for Youth Programs and organized today; he reported on his Iwo Jima Division Sea Cadet activities, and he reported on the Young Marines activities, filling in for Foye Belyea.

It was gratifying to see the enthusiasm and numerous accomplishments of the cadets, and their activities clearly showed that our financial and personal support of these youth groups is money and time well spent.

Just as a reminder, we support six individual youth groups throughout the year; the approximate no. of cadets for each is shown below.

- Iwo Jima Division Sea Cadets (60)
- AmVets Division Sea Cadets (30)
- Young Marines of the Palm Beaches (40)
- MCJROTC, Palm Beach Lakes High School (180)
- NJROTC, Royal Palm Beach High School (180)
- NJROTC, Palm Beach Gardens High School (250)
