

News Clip

May 10, 2017

Navy League

of the United States

Palm Beach Council

Citizens in Support of the Sea Services

www.navyleague-pbcouncil.org

Young Marine Graduation At Navy Operational Support Center

On May 10th, 2017 Peter Peterlis spoke to the young Marines at their graduation. It was a wonderful ceremony that included an honored guest, recognizing new recruits, an inspection, and of course congratulating the graduating young marines.

Here Peter Petrelis is talking to the Graduating class of the Young Marines.

YM LCPL Linedjie Joseph introduced the honored guest. She was recently recognized for her outstanding contribution to her unit at the Awards Dinner.

Navy League members, CAPT Peter Petrelis and the Honored Guest LT Lamar Parker. LT Parker joined the Navy at the age of 16 in 1942 and went to flight school in Pensacola. He was there for the invasion of Guadalcanal and worked with General MacArthur. He survived 10 major battles during WWII. After the service he became a teacher and a coach.

The full Battalion of the Young Marines

The newest members of the Young Marines

Standing ready for the inspection.