Our New Sea Cadet Chief Petty Officer Cadet CPO Alina Montenegro

Palm Beach Naval Sea Cadet Alina Montenegro completed the rigorous requirements for advancement to Cadet Chief Petty Officer and was “frocked” into her new position by serving Chief Petty Officers at NOSC West Palm Beach.

Council President Jack & Jianying Hanscom represented our council at the event and passed along our sincere congratulations on this significant achievement. (And we thank you Jack for your dedication in showing up when the doctor advised otherwise!)

Cadet Alina Montenegro has been a truly outstanding Sea Cadet for several years, and it is entirely fitting that her efforts resulted in being honored by the NOSC Chief Petty Officers – a very special honor indeed. After receiving her collar devices from NOSC CPO David Stuart and her father Francisco, the NOSC CPOs stood as sideboys and piped the new Chief Montenegro aboard her Sea Cadet unit.

Deirdre Krause was also present for the proceedings and was a key mentor to Cadet CPO Montenegro during her formative Sea Cadet years.

Well done to all! We in the Navy League are proud to be able to support such outstanding performance.
