We did it again – a fun double header on Sunday afternoon. It's now gone from tradition to requirement.

We started with a 2pm Lunch/Happy Hour at the Palm Beach Kennel Club, followed by 4pm awards ceremony at the nearby Navy Operational Support Center on Belvedere Rd.

The Kennel Club turnout was a bit smaller than in the past. Stalwarts Bob & Pandora Crippen and Diana Paxton and Ellen Secret weren't able to make it today. But newcomers Jack Veasy, Gail Farquhar and Iain Currie brought their spirit and betting skills.

Pandora wasn't present to defend her Big Winner title, but she would have had trouble against today's Big Winner, Ken Lee, who walked out with over $50 of PBKC money four lucky guesses in a row!

And in a rare coup, everyone bet and everyone cashed on the final race thanks to a swift dog No. 8 Power Nap.

At the Races – Palm Beach Kennel Club

Dan Pedrick - Ken Lee - Jack Veasy - Gail Farquhar- Iain Currie – Jack & Jianying Hanscom

Following the PBKC activities, the Sailor of the Quarter awards were presented at an All Hands gathering at the Navy Operational Support Center (NOSC) – Dan Pedrick represented the Palm Beach Council and presented the following awards
