PB Kennel Club Happy Hour & NOSC Sailors of the Quarter

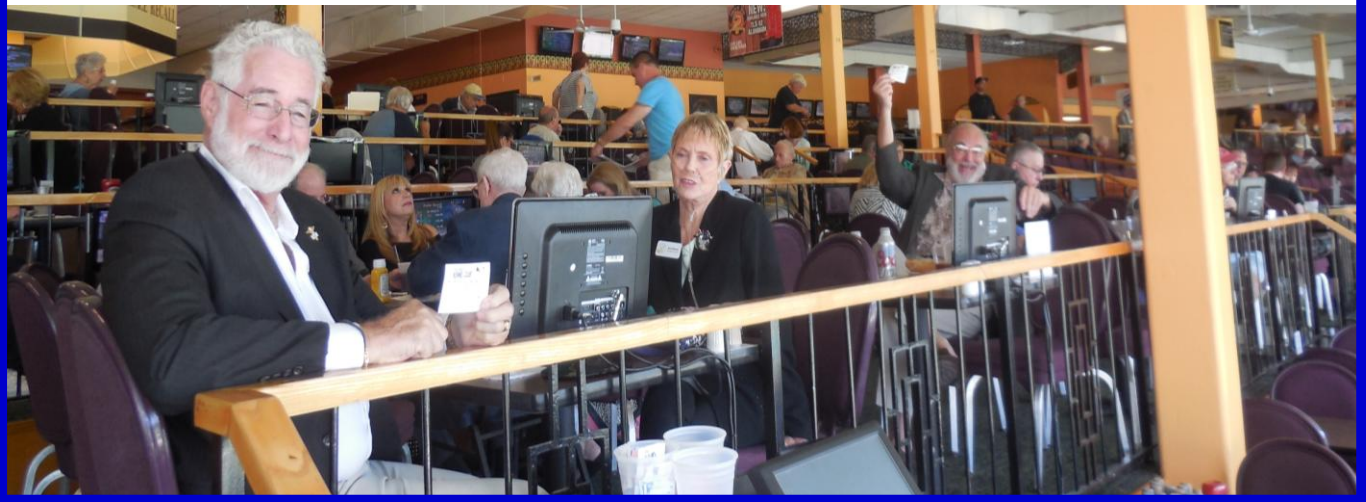

A good group of Palm Beach council members convened at Palm Beach Kennel Club for some Bloody Marys, race wagering and good fun.

The group then travelled around the corner to NOSC and presented Sailor of the Quarter awards and a special cake to help celebrate the 100th Anniversary of the U.S. Navy Reserves.

At the Kennel Club, Pandora Crippen continued her winning ways, but this week Elinor Pedrick joined on the winning side. Ken Lee clearly exited the winning side, cashing only one winning ticket out of seven.... Ugh!

Chuck Stark, Ann Ganzel and Eric Rydstrom also cashed some early winners.

Then at the NOSC (Navy Operational Support Center) awards presentation, the Palm Beach Council Navy Leaguers were provided front row seats and thanked for their continuing outstanding support; note that Phil Dunmire had joined the group.

Six Sailor of the Quarter awards were up for presentation at the NOSC (see next page), and $100 award sponsors Irv Silver and Elinor Pedrick were present for the occasion.

Dan Pedrick, our council Liaison Officer with the NOSC presented the awards, each of which consisted of a personalized plaque (including sponsor name) and $100-bill.

Council President Jack & Jianying

Hanscom donated and brought two lovely cakes decorated to commemorate the 100th Anniversary of the Navy Reserves. (Thank you Hanscoms for a most generous and thoughtful donation).

NOSC CO LCDR Steve Johnson and Senior Enlisted Advisor Chief David Stuart called upon the youngest Navy Reservist present (Airman Leyla Coleman) and the youngest Palm Beach Sea Cadets present (Cadets Carly Monroe and Mario Cobo) to make the first cuts. Immediately after that, lines formed and the nearly 200 reservists and cadets present enjoyed the treat.

Awards Chairman Ken Lee addressed the group and expressed our council's pride in being associated with the outstanding NOSC sailors and officers, and thanked Irv Silver and Elinor Pedrick for their sponsorship of two of today's awards, and the Hanscoms for creating and bringing the 100th Anniversary cakes.
