Palm Beach Council President Ken Lee presents award certificate, challenge coin & $50 honorarium to Petty Officer Elsa Guanner, one of eighteen honorees.

The Navy League Palm Beach Council honored 18 local Navy Reservists at a waterside appreciation dinner at Riviera Beach Marina TIKI Restaurant.

The reservists were honored for their deployed service over the past year; their duty sites included Afghanistan, Kuwait, Bahrain, Djibouti and Guantanamo Bay.

This was the third consecutive year that the Navy League has conducted this appreciation dinner for our deployed reservists, and Lockheed Martin Corporation in Riviera Beach has underwritten the event costs each year.

The evening included a tribute and toast to Captain Reynolds Beckwith, a stalwart Navy Leaguer and strong supporter of the Palm Beach Council. He attended this dinner the prior two years and passed away on June 5, 2013

The 2013 dinner was highlighted with the presence of the National President of the 48,000-member Navy League of the United States, Phil Dunmire.

Phil, a Wellington resident and long-time Palm Beach Council member, is completing a 2-year stint as national president. He will be honored at the Navy League annual convention in Long Beach, CA later this month.

Navy League National President Phil Dunmire is shown with NOSC Commanding Officer LCDR Ryan Mudd; and Palm Beach Council members John Brandes, Louise Lord and Frank Habicht; and Petty Officer Kessler Maxime and Council President Ken Lee.
