4th ANGLICO Color Guard

LtCol Ronnie Goode relieved LtCol Andrew Kelley as the Inspector-Instructor of the 4th ANGLICO Marine Corps Reserves at the Navy-Marine Reserve Center on Friday, June 17.

With the assistance of the 1st Sergeant, the unit colors were transferred in a formal ceremony as family members and 4th ANGLICO marines looked on.

Council President Ken Lee and Youth VP Nancy Fish attended the Change of Command representing the Navy League.

Ken is shown here with LtCol Kelley and LtCol Goode; Nancy also visited with NOSC Chief Petty Officer Dave Stuart, LtCol Todd Peery and Captain(ret) Rich Wennet. Todd Peery was 4th Anglico I&I preceding Andrew Kelley.

We'll try to have LtCol Goode attend a Palm Beach Council event as Guest of Honor and Speaker after he gets some time in the saddle at the very busy 4th ANGLICO reserve unit; over 40 members are deployed worldwide today, and 40 more are preparing to leave in the near future. Semper Fi !
