On Wednesday, October 30, 2013 the Palm Beach Council presented its Coast Guardsman of the Quarter award to SN Michael Scholl.

Seaman Scholl was chosen by his command at Station Lake Worth Inlet as the best of the best

In Commanding Officer John Gatti's words, "Seaman Scholl always does what is asked, and always more than that – his shipmates know they can count on his 100% dedication and performance."

The award was presented by Council President Ken Lee; it consists of an engraved clock/deskset and a framed certificate with $100 cash honorarium attached.

Several additional council members attended, including Chuck Stark, Jack & Jianying Hanscom, Phil Dunmire, Jerry Nelinson and Eric Rydstrom.

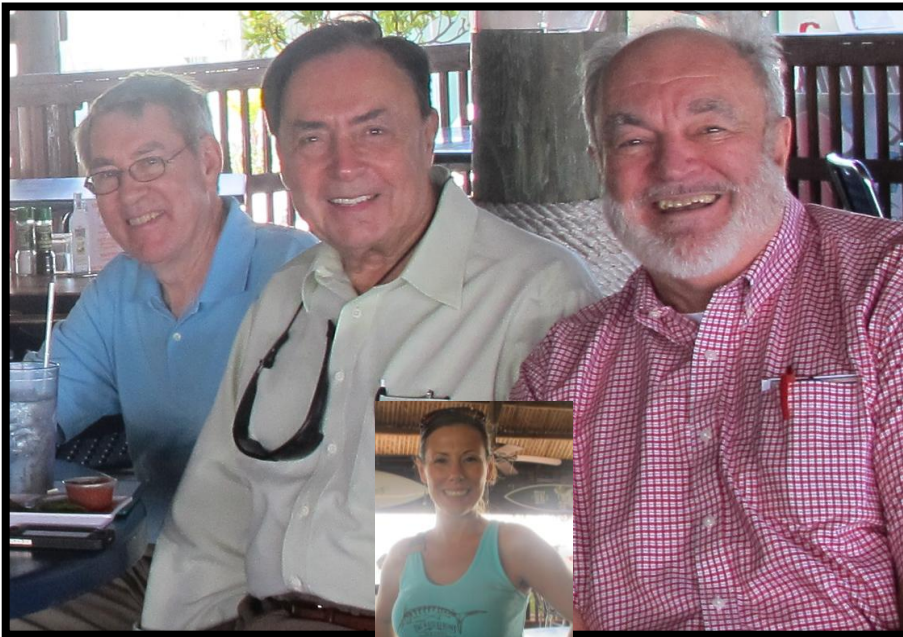

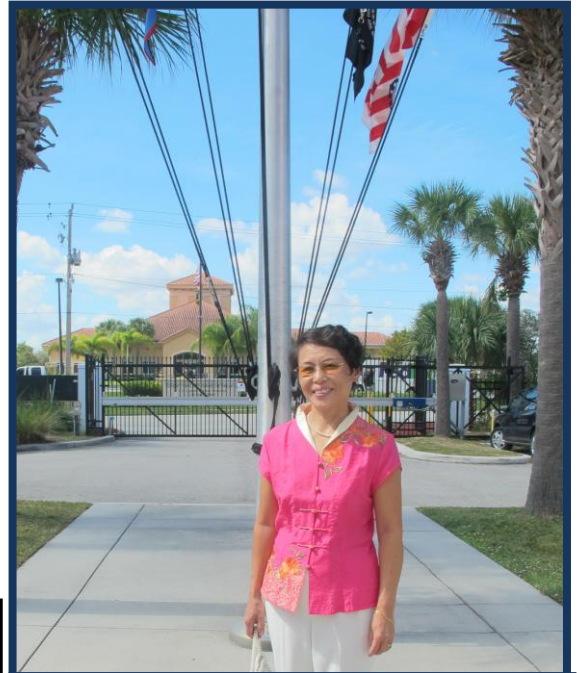

On behalf of the Palm Beach Council, Eric Rydstrom presented a $200 gift card for the station's Morale-Welfare-Recreation fund and thanked the assembled Coast Guardsmen for their important and outstanding service in the Palm Beaches.

Eric also organized a pre-awards lunch at the TIKI Restaurant, and council member (and President-to-be) Frank Drennan joined the group from his office just down the street.
